

Contents

Chapter I. Polish Army in World War II. Introduction to the Subject	9
1. The origin of the war.....	9
2. The events of September Campaign	11
3. Polish Army in France.....	16
4. Polish Armed Forces in the West.....	18
5. Polish Armed Forces in the USSR and Polish Army 1944–1945.....	20
6. Polish Underground State Army.....	22
Bibliography to Chapter I.....	25
Chapter II. The 1939 September Campaign. Attempt of recapitulation	27
1. The 1939 September Campaign or Defensive War?	27
2. Is it worth to write about the September Campaign any more?	28
3. What is new about the September Campaign in this chapter?	29
4. Was Poland prepared for war?.....	30
5. Process of mobilization	31
6. Combat episodes and battles. A sketch for a portrait of the 1939 September Campaign	33
7. Attempt of estimation.....	41
Bibliography to Chapter II	51
Chapter III. Living behind the barbed wires. Polish soldiers interned and captured	52
1. Circumstances of taken into captivity and interning Polish soldiers in the September Campaign	52
2. Polish POWs from the September Campaign.....	56
3. Polish POWs from the September Campaign in the Soviet Union.....	60
4. Polish seamen interned in Sweden	63
5. Polish soldiers interned in Hungary.....	64
6. Polish soldiers interned in Romania.....	64
7. Poles interned in Lithuania.....	66

8. Poles interned in Latvia.....	67
9. Conclusions.....	69
Bibliography to Chapter III.....	71
Chapter IV. In the land of France. Political and military aspects of forming the Polish Army in France.....	73
1. Political dilemmas after the September Campaign	73
2. Legal grounds of forming the Polish Army in France.....	74
3. Concepts and organizational plans.....	77
4. Forming the Polish Army in France	78
5. Training of commanders and troops.....	81
6. Polish divisions in the 1940 French Campaign.....	86
7. Conclusions.....	89
Bibliography to Chapter IV.....	93
Chapter V. In the desert sands. The Polish Independent Brigade Group in Africa.....	95
1. Direction: the Near East.....	95
2. Under the British command.....	96
3. In the Pharaohs' land.....	97
4. The Tobruk relief.....	101
5. The desert fights	105
6. Conclusions.....	111
Bibliography to Chapter V	114
Chapter VI. The Albion relief. The Polish Army in the British Isles.....	116
1. Difficult beginnings	116
2. Training of military forces	121
3. The anti-airborne defence.....	124
4. The Polish Navy – between the sky and sea bottom, suspended amidst the waves.....	126
5. The Skalski's Circus and others – Polish Air Forces in Great Britain	130
6. Conclusions.....	135
Bibliography to Chapter VI.....	136
Chapter VII. In the arms of the Big Brother. Polish Military Forces in the Soviet Union – 1941–1942.....	138
1. High expectations	138
2. In the very heart of Asia.....	145
3. Evacuation.....	146
4. Reaching combat readiness.....	149

5. Conclusions.....	155
Bibliography to Chapter VII	157
Chapter VIII. By the rivers of Babylon. The Polish Army in the Middle East.....	159
1. Organizational concepts of the army.....	159
2. Change of plans. Forming of the 2 nd Polish Corps.....	163
3. Preparing of command cadres and experts	166
4. Training of troops	169
5. Conclusions.....	172
Bibliography to Chapter VIII.....	175
Chapter IX. Sixty Kilometers from Katyń. The Battle of Lenino of Polish
1st Tadeusz Kościuszko Infantry Division	177
1. Soviet plans to create Polish National Army in the USSR.....	178
2. Politics is politics and Berling is the commander	182
3. The Patron of the 1 st division – Tadeusz Kościuszko.....	184
4. To the front	186
5. Preparation to battle	188
6. Baptism of fire.....	189
7. War of commanders.....	192
8. Conclusions.....	195
Bibliography to Chapter IX.....	198
Chapter X. On the way to the eternal city. The legend and truth
on Monte Cassino	200
1. A new deal – the Italian front	200
2. The battle preparations.....	204
3. Monte Cassino battle	207
4. Conclusion	209
Bibliography to Chapter X	215
Chapter XI. Hot Summer of 1944: Was “Storm” Necessary?.....	217
1. Birth of the idea.....	217
2. The course of “Storm” in the eastern area of Poland	219
3. “Storm” between the Bug and the Vistula.....	221
4. New occupation?.....	224
5. Following “Storm”: Polish Army in 1944	225
6. Between patriotism and responsibility: Are they guilty of initiating the Warsaw uprising?	236
7. Conclusions.....	243
Bibliography to Chapter XI.....	247

Chapter XII. The liberators of Europe. The battles of Polish Armed Forces in the final period of war	249
1. In Western Europe	249
2. Pomeranian Battles	258
3. The Capturing of Bologne.....	267
4. Conclusions.....	275
Bibliography to Chapter XII.....	279
Chapter XIII. Best of the best. Soldiers and senior commanders of the Polish Army during WWII.....	281
1. Were they the best?	281
2. The sketch for a portrait of the senior commanding staff.....	284
3. Conclusions.....	293
Bibliography to Chapter XIII	296