

Contents

Foreword by Richard Ormord 4

Introduction 5

The Buildings 11

History of site, royal park, buildings; architects; Queen's House; Greenwich Hospital; Royal Naval College

Behind the scenes 21

Display planning and philosophy; Department of Conservation; presentation of information; public relations, publications, conferences; education services

The Archaeology of Water Transport 29

History of European water transport; Ferriby boats; Brigg 'raft'; Sutton Hoo; faering replica; Graveney boat; medieval ships; Kentmere boat; logboats; ethnographic collection

The Development of the Ship 39

Models; plans; sailing ship; development of steam ship; compound engine; warships; twentieth-century oil, steam, diesel; submarine

The Story of Maritime Pictures 60

History of collection; oil paintings – shipping, portraits, war paintings; prints and drawings; historic photographs

Navigation and Hydrography 88

Navigation collection; formation; development of navigation; surveying and drawing instruments; marine meteorology; oceanography. Hydrography collections: early manuscript charts on vellum; first printed sea charts; Dutch, British, French sea atlases; story of British hydrography

Astronomy and Time 103

History of Greenwich Observatory and buildings; meridian line; telescopes. 'Time': spheres, orreries, planetaria, sundials, nocturnals, clocks; marine chronometers; Barberini collection

Printed Books and Manuscripts 113

Ships' records, logs, private journals; navigational manuals; printed maps and atlases, manuals, 'waggoners'; shipbuilding, gunnery, exploration, trade, sea warfare; topographical, almanacs. Sir James Caird and development of collection

Weapons and Antiquities 125

Composition of collection; guns; swords; costume; medals; plate; ceramics; tools; furniture and fittings; relics; sculpture

