

Contents

INTRODUCTION	xvii
PART ONE: WAGING WAR WITH LIMITED RESOURCES, 1775-1815
① A Strategy of Attrition: George Washington	3
② A Strategy of Partisan War: Nathanael Greene	18
3 The Federalists and the Jeffersonians	40
PART TWO: YOUNG AMERICA AS A MILITARY POWER, 1815-1890
4 The Age of Winfield Scott	59
5 The Founding of American Strategic Studies: Dennis Hart Mahan and Henry Wager Halleck	77
6 Napoleonic Strategy: R. E. Lee and the Confederacy	92
7 A Strategy of Annihilation: U. S. Grant and the Union	128
8 Annihilation of a People: The Indian Fighters	153
PART THREE: INTRODUCTION TO WORLD POWER, 1890-1941
9 A Strategy of Sea Power and Empire: Stephen B. Luce and Alfred Thayer Mahan	167
10 Strategy and the Great War of 1914-1918	192

- 11 A Strategy of Air Power: Billy Mitchell 223
- 12 A Strategy for Pacific Ocean War:
Naval Strategists of the 1920s and 1930s 242

PART FOUR: AMERICAN STRATEGY IN GLOBAL TRIUMPH, 1941-1945

- 13 The Strategic Tradition of A. T. Mahan:
Strategists of the Pacific War 269
- 14 The Strategic Tradition of U. S. Grant:
Strategists of the European War 312

PART FIVE: AMERICAN STRATEGY IN PERPLEXITY, 1945-

- 15 The Atomic Revolution 363
- 16 Old Strategies Revisited: Douglas MacArthur and
George C. Marshall in the Korean War 382
- 17 Strategies of Deterrence and of Action:
The Strategy Intellectuals 399
- 18 Strategies of Action Attempted: To the Vietnam War 441

NOTES 479

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AMERICAN WRITINGS ON MILITARY
STRATEGY, THEORETICAL AND HISTORICAL 553

INDEX 563