

Table of Contents

Introduction	6
From Light Infantry to Special Forces and Back Again Swedish Rangers During the 20th Century Fredrik Eriksson	12
Behind the Frontlines The Role of Romanian Special Intelligence Missions 1918-1924 Carmen-Sorina Rîjnoveanu	30
The French SAS in Operation Overlord Heralds of Fighting France Jean-Charles Foucrier	42
Unreliable Allies Yugoslavs in the Ranks of the British Commandos During the Second World War Blaž Torkar	60
The Role of British Special Air Service Chaplains in the Second World War Linda Parker	78
Special Military Operations Conducted by the Romanian Army on the Eastern Front 1941-1944 Manuel Stănescu	94
Fake Guerrillas Useful Assets in Internal Conflicts Peter A. Kiss	104
73rd Infantry Regiment First Spec Ops Unit in Communist Czechoslovakia (1949-1954) Matej Medvecký and Miloslav Čaplovič	118
Organisational Evolution of Bulgarian Special Forces 80 Years Historical Development Jordan Baev	130
Czechoslovak/Czech Elite Army Units in the Post-Communist Era Petr Janoušek	145

“Greetings From James Bond”?	154
German SOF Structures for a New Model Army. The Planning of the Kommando Spezialkräfte in the 1990s Martin Rink
Special Ethics for Special Soldiers?	186
Thoughts on Ethical Standards in the Special Operations Forces of the Bundeswehr Sven Behnke
Organisational Learning in Special Operations Forces	202
Martijn van der Vorm
Concluding Remarks	224
About the Authors	228