

Contents

Foreword, by the Secretary of the Navy	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction, The United States Navy Between World Wars , by Commodore Dudley W. Knox USN (Ret.)	xxxiii
1. International Limitation of Naval Armaments	xxxv
2. Pacifist Propaganda	xli
3. The "Billy Mitchell" Crusade	xlvi
4. Development of Fleet Aviation	xliv
5. Development of Amphibious Warfare	liii
6. General Progress	lvi
7. Comparison of Naval Strength	lx
Abbreviations Used in Text	2
I The Naval Antagonists, 1939-1940	3
1. The Nazi Navy and Naval Policy	3
2. The Royal Navies	11
3. The Neutrality Patrol of the Atlantic Squadron	13
II Transatlantic Convoys under Anglo-Canadian Escort, September 1939-December 1940	17
1. Convoy Definitions	17
2. The Transatlantic Convoys	19
3. Effect of the Fall of France, June 1940	22
III "Short of War" Policy, June 1940-March 1941	27
1. The "Two-Ocean Navy"	27
2. Martinique and Neutrality Patrol	30

3.	The Destroyer-Naval Base Deal with Britain	33
4.	Lend-Lease	36
5.	Staff Conversations and Basic Strategic Decisions, August 1940–March 1941	38
	a. Admiral Stark and Exploratory Conversations. b. The Basic Strategic Concept of the War
6.	Transatlantic Escort Plans and the Support Force	49
IV	“Short of War” Operations, March–August 1941	56
1.	British Transatlantic Convoys, March–May 1941	56
2.	Greenland and Western Hemisphere Defense	58
3.	The Crisis of Midsummer, 1941	64
	a. Unlimited National Emergency. b. The Escort-building Program. c. Azores or Iceland? d. Casco and Argentina. e. The Atlantic Conference
V	The United States Navy Joins Battle, September–December 1941	74
1.	From Patrol to Escort Duty	74
	a. Occupation of Iceland; Operation Plans of July. b. Attack on U.S.S. Greer ; de Facto War Begins. c. Atlantic Patrol. d. Navy Begins Escort Duty
2.	First Blood for the Nazis	92
	a. Attack on Convoy SC-48; U.S.S. Kearny . b. Sinking of U.S.S. Reuben James ; Winter Escort Duty

Contents

		xxi
	3. Convoy Procedure and Early Lessons	99
	a. Procedure. b. Communications. c. The Fueling Problem
	4. The First American Convoy to the Orient, WS-12X	109
VI	The German Submarine Offensive of 1942, January–July 1942	114
	1. Transatlantic Convoys, December 1941–June 1942	114
	2. The Assault on Coastal and Caribbean Shipping	125
	a. From New England South. b. Gulf Sea Frontier. c. Caribbean. d. Off the Canal Entrance
	3. First Kills of U-Boats	154
VII	The North Russia Run, December 1941–July 1942	158
	1. Conditions and Urgencies	158
	2. The Tough Month of March	164
	3. Task Force 39	167
	4. Convoys PQ-16 and QP-13	171
	5. The Ordeal of PQ-17	179
VIII	Missions to Malta, April–May 1942	193
IX	Trends and Conclusions, January–June 1942	198
X	The Organization of Anti-Submarine Warfare, 1939–1942	202
	1. The Complex Problem	202
	2. Administration and Sea Frontiers	205
	3. Weapons and Devices	209
	a. Anti-Submarine Weapons. b. Sound Gear and Sound Schools. c. The Anti-Submarine Warfare Unit. d. Scientists at Operational Level. e. Radar in Anti-Submarine Applications. f. The High-Frequency Direction-Finder

4.	The Anti-Submarine Fleet	229
	a. Subchasers. b. The Subchaser School at Miami. c. Cutters, Gunboats and Destroyers
5.	Air Power and the Submarine	237
	a. The Army Anti-Submarine Air Command. b. The Naval Air Patrol
6.	Coastal Convoys	252
	a. Atlantic Coast Shipping Lanes. b. "Bucket Brigades." c. Convoys Extended Coastwise. d. Caribbean Convoys. e. The Interlocking System
XI	Amateurs and Auxiliaries	266
	1. The Patrols	266
	a. Inshore. b. Ship Lane. c. Coastal Picket. d. Civil Air
	2. Mystery Ships	281
	3. Fishermen and Air Observers	286
XII	Merchant Ships and Their Armament	290
	1. Ship Production	290
	2. Naval Armed Guards	296
XIII	Examples, Errors and Lessons, January-June 1942	303
XIV	Ten Months' Incessant Battle, July 1942-April 1943	311
	1. Trends	311

Contents

xxiii

	2. Transatlantic Convoys	317
	a. Daylight Attacks. b. The Midwinter Blitz.
	c. Troop Convoys. d. Heineman's Harriers
	3. Gulf and Caribbean	346
	4. Central Transatlantic Convoys	352
	5. North Russia Convoys	358
	a. Tuscaloosa's Mission. b. Convoy PQ-18.
	c. "Trickle" and Renewed Convoys.
	d. American Seamen in North Russia Ports
XV	"Deus É Brasileiro," September 1941-April 1943	376
XVI	Unescorted Ships with Armed Guards	392
XVII	Analysis and Conclusion, April 1943	400
	1. The Situation from the German Point of View	400
	2. The Situation from the Allied Point of View	403
	Appendix I Losses of Merchant Shipping	410
	Appendix II Monthly Sinkings of German and Italian Submarines	415
	Appendix III Arming of Merchant Vessels	416
	Appendix IV Mine Fields Laid by U-Boats in Western Atlantic, 1942	417
	Appendix V The Support Force Atlantic Fleet, 18 March 1941	418
	Appendix VI The Atlantic Fleet of the United States Navy, August 1942	419
	Index	423

- Convoy SC-48: From a Navy patrol plane about ten hours
after Kearny was torpedoed 93
U.S.S. Greer
- Transatlantic Convoys, February 1942, from a Cruiser's Float
Plane 106
- "TBS Confusion" — a cartoon by Nelson 107
U.S.S. West Point
- Admiral Giffen on bridge of Wichita off Iceland 128
Winter Convoy scene, North Atlantic
- Destroyer Duty, North Atlantic: Messages are received and sent by blinker on bridge of U.S.S. Greer 129
Deck scene, U.S.S. Greer
- Tanker Byron D. Benson, Sunk off Cape Hatteras 5 April 1942: A few moments after the torpedo hit, before lowering lifeboats 134
The sinking vessel completely hidden by smoke from burning oil
- Sinking Tanker and Collier: Dixie Arrow, broken amidships
by torpedo hit, off Hatteras, 26 March 1942 135
Santore, holed by mine off Chesapeake capes, rolls over and sinks, 17 June 1942
- King George VI inspecting Marine Guard of U.S.S. Washington, 7 June 1942; Admiral Giffen, the King, Admiral
Stark, Captain Benson 170
S.S. Troubadour working into Matochkin Strait, Novaya
Zemlya, where S.S. Ironclad is anchored
- Scenes on the North Russia Run: M-3 tank with 37-mm gun used as anti-aircraft gun on S.S. Troubadour 171
An aerial torpedo hit on a merchant vessel
- Mission to Malta: Wasp at Scapa Flow, April 1942 210
Spitfire being warmed up on deck of Wasp

- “Mousetrap” and “Hedgehog”: Hedgehog: projectiles being loaded on spigots 211
 Mousetrap: loader raising retainers
- SC-1037 230
 Coast Guard Cutter Ingham
- Two Types of Patrol Craft: PCE-847, a 180-footer specially designed for escort duty, closes a Central Atlantic convoy to pick up a passenger for Bermuda 231
 PC-574, a 173-footer, patrolling in the Caribbean
- Trinidad: Seaplane Tender Pocomoke enters Gulf of Paria, October 1942, followed by local escort 258
 United States Naval Section Base, Corcorite
- Air and Surface Escort in the Caribbean: Blimp at Edinburgh Field, Trinidad 259
 U.S.S. Zircon. A converted yacht used as escort flagship
- Sailing Patrol Ships: Schooner Aeolus of the “Hooligan Navy” 280
 Schooner Guinevere of the Ship Lane Patrol
- Coast Guard Cutter Campbell: A 20-mm machine-gun crew of Campbell 281
Campbell after ramming U-606, 22 February 1943
- Attack of Spencer on U-175, 17 April 1943: 344
 General Quarters!
 Depth charge flying from K-gun
 Depth charge explodes
U-175 blown to surface
- Attack of Spencer, Gunfire Phase: 345
U-175 under gunfire attack
U-175 sinking
 German survivors
 Burial at Sea

H.M.C.S. Oakville	374
H.M.C.S. Restigouche seen from Skeena
Action of H.M.C.S. Assiniboine with U-210, 6 August 1942	375
Martin Mariners over Rio	388
Showing the Flag in the South Atlantic	389