

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	xix

Part One: The Loss

1	The Aftermath	3
2	HMAS Sydney	11
3	The Men in Command	30
4	HSK Kormoran	41
5	Under Pressure to Perform	55
6	The Eclipse of Raider Warfare	69
7	What Happened?	80
8	Reservations and Doubts	96
9	The Post-Mortem	111

Part Two: The Controversy

10	The Genesis of a Controversy	129
11	The Navy and the 'Official' History	146
12	Speculation and History: HMAS Sydney and the Japanese	158
13	Defying the Unknown	178
14	Stirring the Pot or Whipping Up Ill-will?	186
15	The Carley Float and Forensic Analysis	200
16	An Autopsy Without a Body	207
17	The Unknown and the Unknowable	225

Figures	233
---------	-----

Appendices

1	Alleged HMAS Sydney 'Letter of Proceedings' 19 November 1941	251
2	Officers and Men Lost at Sea in HMAS Sydney	257
3	Officers and Men Lost at Sea in HSK Kormoran	273
4	German Auxiliary Cruisers of World War II	275
	Notes and References	278
	Bibliography	289
	Index	297
	Acknowledgements	301

List of Figures

(pages 233 to 247)

- 1 The area of the search and positions of the Kormoran lifeboats and the Carley float and lifebelts from Sydney when located
- 2 The Unmodified Leander Class Light Cruiser
- 3 Cape Spada Action—Track Chart of HMAS Sydney
- 4 German naval areas of operations in the Atlantic, 1939-41
- 5 German raiders of World War II
- 6 Kormoran's cruise
- 7 HSK Kormoran
- 8 Orion's cruise
- 9 German raider activity in the Indian Ocean, 1940
- 10 German raider activities in the north-west Indian Ocean, January–May 1941
- 11 1944 Admiralty Reconstruction of the Sydney–Kormoran engagement
- 12 Reconstruction of the Sydney–Kormoran engagement by George Hermon Gill
- 13 Carley floats
- 14 Sketch of the loss of HMAS Sydney by Fritz Treber