

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Caution	facing ii
Advertisement	iii
List of Contents	iv
List of Views	vi
Glossary of Gaelic Words	vii
Information relating to Charts	ix
Index Chart	facing 1

CHAPTER I

Meteorology—Tides—Tidal streams—Air lights—Signals —Life-saving service—Uniform system of buoyage— Communications—Wireless—Mines—Summer time— Deratisation—Dockyards—Fuel—Fisheries—General directions	1-35
--	------

CHAPTER II

Scotland, northern coast ; Cape Wrath to Dunnet head	36-55
--	-------

CHAPTER III

The Pentland firth	56-70
------------------------------	-------

CHAPTER IV

Scotland, eastern coast ; Duncansby head to Tarbat ness, including Dornoch firth	71-89
---	-------

CHAPTER V

Moray, Cromarty, and Inverness firths ; the Caledonian canal	90-122
---	--------

CHAPTER VI

Scotland, eastern coast ; Burghead to Kinnairds head . . . 123-137

CHAPTER VII

Scotland, eastern coast ; Kinnairds head to Whiting ness . . . 138-164

CHAPTER VIII

River Tay and approach 165-181

CHAPTER IX

The Estuary of the Firth of Forth, and approaches 182-201

CHAPTER X

Firth of Forth.—Inchkeith to Forth Bridge, including Leith and approach.—River Forth, Forth Bridge to Stirling . . . 202-238

CHAPTER XI

Eastern coast of Scotland, Gin head to Berwick 239-249

APPENDICES

I.—Order in Council for Rosyth	250
" " Cromarty	255
II.—List of ports available for under-water repairs	261
III.—List of principal ports, giving particulars of depths, etc.	265
IV.—Meteorological tables	267
Index	273
List of sailing directions, etc., published by the Hydrographic Department of the Admiralty	295
List of Admiralty agents for the sale of charts, etc.	301