

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction .....	vii
Helen de Silva Joyce and Elizabeth A. Thomson
List of Abbreviations .....	xiv
Part 1: Discourse and Needs Analysis
Chapter One.....	2
Interpreting the Speaking Performance Requirements of Forward Air Controllers Mary Jo Di Biase and Francesco Gratton
Chapter Two .....	18
Language at the Pointy End: Understanding the Additional Language Needs of the Australian Defence Force Elizabeth A. Thomson
Chapter Three .....	41
An Overview of Law Enforcement English Ileana Maria Chersan
Chapter Four.....	62
Analysing the Genres of Military Operational Engagement for Curriculum Design Helen de Silva Joyce and Elizabeth A. Thomson
Part 2: Curriculum Development
Chapter Five .....	84
Developing an English Curriculum for the Indonesian National Police: A Case Study Jaclyn Gishbaugher

Chapter Six .....	105
Challenges in Converting Training Needs Analysis (TNA) Findings into a Comprehensive Language for Defence Purposes (LDP) Course Sue Casey
Chapter Seven.....	132
Professional Development in a Counter-Terrorism Policing Context: A Program of Research Literacies for Writing Reports Terry Royce
Chapter Eight.....	150
Techniques for Teaching Advanced Learners of Military English through Content-based Language Courses Annette Nolan
Chapter Nine.....	178
Professional Development and Curriculum Change: Perils and Pitfalls Helen de Silva Joyce, Beth Foster and Elizabeth A. Thomson
Part 3: Assessment
Chapter Ten .....	198
Defining and Assessing STANAG 6001 Level 4 Language Proficiency Jana Vasilj-Begovic, Gerard Seinhorst, Martha Herzog, Mary Jo Di Biase, Dugald Sturges, Annette Nolan, Ulla Gudnason, Peggy Garza, Emilija Nesheva and Michael Adubato
Chapter Eleven .....	223
Marching Out of Step: The Uneasy Links between Task-based Language Competencies for Military Purposes and a General Proficiency Scale Catherine Elder, John Pill, Kellie Frost and Catherine Bow
Chapter Twelve .....	241
Profiling Second Language Reading Ability in a Military Context: Processes to Enhance Validity and Reliability Fiona Daniels and Kate Weir
Contributors.....	259