

Summary of Contents

PART I Studying politics

---

1	Political concepts	1
2	The state	21
3	Democracy	41
4	Authoritarian rule	58
5	Theoretical approaches	76

PART II Mobilization and participation

---

6	Political culture	93
7	Political communication	111
8	Political participation	130
9	Interest groups	150
10	Political parties	169
11	Elections	190
12	Voters	211

PART III Government and governance

---

13	Constitutions and law	231
14	Multilevel governance	253
15	Legislatures	275
16	The political executive	298
17	The bureaucracy	322
18	The policy process	342

PART IV Research strategies

---

19	Comparative methods	361
----	---------------------	-----

Contents

List of illustrative material	viii
Preface	xii
Guide to learning features	xiv
Guide to profiles	xvi

PART I Studying politics

---

1 Political concepts	1
Politics	1
Government, political system and governance	4
Comparative politics	6
Classifying governments	7
Power, authority and legitimacy	10
The state, sovereignty and citizenship	13
Nations and nationalism	15
Ideology, left and right	17
2 The state	21
Emergence and expansion	21
Restructuring	26
Contemporary challenges	27
The diversity of states	30
The state and intergovernmental organizations	34
3 Democracy	41
Democracy and expertise	42
Direct democracy	43
Representation	46
Liberal democracy	47
Democracy and modernization	49
Waves of democracy	52
Recent transitions	54
4 Authoritarian rule	58
Authoritarian rule	58
Personal despotism	62
Monarchy	63
Ruling parties	65
Ruling presidents	67
Military rule	70
Theocracy	72
Competitive authoritarian regimes	73

5 Theoretical approaches	76
The institutional approach	77
The behavioural approach	80
The structural approach	82
The rational choice approach	83
The interpretive approach	87
Conclusion	90

PART II Mobilization and participation

---

6 Political culture	93
The civic culture	94
Political trust and social capital	96
Generations and postmaterial values	98
Civilizations and religion	102
Elite political culture	105
Political culture in authoritarian states	107
7 Political communication	111
Media development	112
Media structures	117
Media impact	119
Political communication in authoritarian states	126
8 Political participation	130
Participation in liberal democracies	131
Women and political participation	134
Social movements	137
Public opinion	140
Participation in authoritarian states	143
9 Interest groups	150
Classifying interest groups	151
Pluralism, iron triangles and issue networks	154
Channels of influence	158
Ingredients of influence	164
Interest groups in authoritarian states	165
10 Political parties	169
Party origins	170
Party organization	171
Party members	172

Selecting candidates and leaders	173	15 Legislatures	275
Party finance	176	Structure	276
Social cleavages	178	Functions	279
Party systems	180	Committees	285
Parties in authoritarian states	183	Members	289
		The European Parliament	292
11 Elections	190	Legislatures in authoritarian states	294
Scope and franchise	190	16 The political executive	298
Electing legislatures	192	Presidential government	298
Electing presidents	197	Parliamentary government	305
Electoral systems: design and reform	199	Semi-presidential government	312
Election campaigns	200	The executive of the European Union	314
Messages and mandates	202	The executive in authoritarian states	318
The referendum, initiative, and recall	203
Elections in authoritarian states	208	17 The bureaucracy	322
		Evolution	322
12 Voters	211	Recruitment	325
Party identification	211	Organization	327
Partisan dealignment	213	Accountability	332
The social base	215	New public management	334
The rational voter	217	E-government	336
Issue voting	220	The bureaucracy in authoritarian states	338
The economy	221
Leaders' personalities	223	18 The policy process	342
Turnout	227	Models	343
		Stages	346
PART III Government and governance		Instruments	351
		Diffusion	352
13 Constitutions and law	231	The policy process in authoritarian states	357
Common law and civil law	232
Constitutions	233	PART IV Research strategies
The courts and judicial review	236	19 Comparative methods	361
European Court of Justice	239	Case studies	361
Judicial activism	239	Comparative studies	364
Judicial independence and recruitment	244	Qualitative comparisons	367
Judicial decision-making	245	Quantitative comparisons	368
Administrative law	246	Historical analysis	370
Law in authoritarian states	248
14 Multilevel governance	253	References	375
Multilevel governance	253	Index	398
Federalism	255
The European Union	263
Unitary states	264
Regional governance	265
Local governance	267
Central–local relations in authoritarian states	272

List of illustrative material

Profiles

India	50
China	68
Germany	100
Spain	122
Russia	146
European Union	160
Italy	186
United States	206
Venezuela	224
South Africa	240
Canada	260
United Kingdom	286
France	316
Japan	330
Sweden	354

Spotlights

Democracy in India	51
Authoritarian rule in China	69
Political culture in Germany	101
The media in Spain	123
Participation in Russia	147
Interest groups and the EU	161
Parties in Italy	187
Elections in the United States	207
Voting in Venezuela	225
The constitution and the legal framework in South Africa	241
Federalism in Canada	261
The British Parliament	287
The political executive in France	317
The bureaucracy in Japan	331
The policy process in Sweden	355

Timelines

The European Union	38
The development of communication media in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries	114

Hugo Chávez	225
The Court of Justice of the European Communities (ECJ)	243
The European Parliament	293

Maps

2.1 The European Union, 2013	37
14.1 Regions of Belgium	258

Boxes

1.1 Hobbes's case for government	5
1.2 The value of comparison	6
1.3 Aristotle's classification of governments	8
1.4 A classification of governments	9
1.5 Lukes' three dimensions of power	11
1.6 Themes in the election programmes of left- and right-wing parties, 1945–98	18
2.1 The Western state: expansion and restructuring	25
2.2 Some major attacks by Islamic terrorists on civilian Western targets, 2001–08	28
2.3 The UK government's tiered assessment of risks to its national security, 2010	29
2.4 States from empires: waves of decolonization	33
3.1 Forms of democracy	43
3.2 Aristotle's characterization of democracy	44
3.3 Degrees of democracy: from unanimity to plurality	46
3.4 Huntington's three waves of democratization	52
4.1 Forms of authoritarian rule	61
4.2 Communist party states	66
5.1 Political behaviour in the White House: the person, not the post	81
5.2 The structural approach: Skocpol on revolutions	83
5.3 The limits of rationality: groupthink	85
5.4 Ideas and politics: Valentino on mass killing and genocide	90

6.1	A clash of civilizations?	103	14.1	The allocation of functions in the Canadian and German federations	256
6.2	Relationships between states and civilizations	103	14.2	Financial transfers from the federal government to states	259
7.1	Contemporary trends in mass communication	115	14.3	Federalism: strengths and weaknesses	262
7.2	Media structures in liberal democracies	118	14.4	Methods for distributing power away from the centre	265
7.3	Media effects	120	14.5	Exploring the status of local government	267
7.4	Some tests used by journalists to determine newsworthiness	121	14.6	Structures for local government	269
8.1	Methods for increasing female representation in parliament	137	15.1	Functions of legislatures	280
8.2	Comparing social movements, political parties and protective interest groups	138	15.2	Resolving differences in the versions of a bill passed by each chamber	283
8.3	Measuring public opinion	142	15.3	Parliamentary committees	288
9.1	Waves of interest group formation in the United States	152	15.4	Actresses, athletes and astronauts: some celebrities in national legislatures	292
9.2	Protective and promotional groups	153	15.5	The functions of legislatures and the European Parliament	294
9.3	Regulating lobbyists	163	16.1	Separate election in the United States	302
9.4	Examples of social organizations in contemporary China	166	16.2	Comparing presidential powers in Brazil and the USA	303
10.1	Selection of party leaders in liberal democracies	176	16.3	Compatibility rules	306
10.2	Public funding of political parties: for and against	177	16.4	Procedure for installing a government in parliamentary systems when no party possesses a majority of seats	308
10.3	Participation by far right and green parties in the governments of some West European democracies at some point between 1994 and 2008	179	16.5	Types of coalition government	309
10.4	Party systems in liberal democracies	181	16.6	Location of decision-making in parliamentary government	311
10.5	Major party families in Western Europe	183	16.7	Selecting the head of state in some parliamentary democracies	312
11.1	Electoral systems: legislatures	193	17.1	Max Weber on bureaucracy	324
11.2	Electing presidents: some examples	200	17.2	The three Es: economy, efficiency and effectiveness	325
11.3	The referendum, initiative, and recall	204	17.3	The organization of government: departments, divisions, and non-departmental public bodies	327
12.1	Factors contributing to partisan dealignment	214	17.4	Operating divisions within the Department of Health and Human Services, USA, 2012	329
12.2	The Goldthorpe class scheme	216	17.5	Multiple accountabilities: deputy ministers (DMs, senior public officials) in Canada	333
12.3	Forecasting the American presidential election of 2024	223	17.6	The European Ombudsman	334
12.4	Features of the political system and of individuals which increase turnout	228	17.7	Steer, don't row! Osborne and Gaebler's 10 principles for improving the effectiveness of government agencies	335
12.5	Compulsory voting: for and against	229	17.8	Components of new public management	335
13.1	The arrangement of constitutions	233	17.9	Stages of e-government	337
13.2	Entrenching the constitution: some examples	235	18.1	Three models of policy-making	344
13.3	Judicial review: supreme courts vs constitutional courts	237
13.4	How judges decide	246
13.5	Article I of the Chinese constitution, 1982	249

18.2	Manipulating policy outcomes: the case of an employment service	350
18.3	A selection of policy instruments: the example of tobacco	352
18.4	Mechanisms of policy convergence	353
19.1	Some research designs in politics	363
19.2	Some types of case study	364
19.3	The difficulties of comparison	365
19.4	History matters: politics in time	372

Tables

2.1	Total government expenditure in selected democracies as a proportion of gross domestic product, 1970–2010	26
2.2	Central government debt as a percentage of gross domestic product in selected liberal democracies, 2000–10	29
2.3	States by population, 2011	30
2.4	Distribution of countries by income group, 2010	31
2.5	Countries scoring highest on the fragile states index, 2010	34
2.6	The European Union and the USA, 2011	36
3.1	The expansion of the British electorate, 1831–1969	53
4.1	Some prominent authoritarian states	60
4.2	Leaders overthrown in the Arab Spring, 2011	60
6.1	Proportion of respondents saying they could do something about an unjust law at both national and local level, by country, 1959–60	95
7.1	Internet use in selected countries in the Middle East and North Africa, 2000–09	117
7.2	The world's top 10 newspaper websites, 2011	125
8.1	Political participation in Great Britain, 2011	133
8.2	Female representation in the national legislature of some liberal democracies, 1993 and 2012	136
8.3	Not in my name: the largest demonstrations against the Iraq War by city, 15–16 February 2003	139
8.4	Share of the vote at presidential elections and in the final Gallup poll, United States, 1936–2012	141

9.1	Density of trade union membership in selected democracies, 1980–2010	164
10.1	Party membership, 1960–99	172
11.1	The Canadian federal election, 2011	194
11.2	How the mixed member proportional system works: the German federal election, 2013	197
11.3	A two-round system: the French presidential election, 2012	199
11.4	Western democracies holding most national referendums, 1940–2006	204
12.1	Perceptions of the economy and electoral choice across 28 countries, 1996–2002	222
14.1	Some major federations in liberal democracies	257
14.2	Subnational government in some unitary liberal democracies: number of units by tier	266
15.1	Selection to the upper chamber in some liberal democracies	279
17.1	Top 10 countries by e-government, 2012	337
18.1	Top 10 countries by ease of doing business, 2011	356

Figures

1.1	Member states of the United Nations, 1945–2011	13
2.1	The segmented state: horizontal links between ministries	35
3.1	The number of democratic countries in the world, 1800–2011	41
3.2	The direct democracy of Ancient Athens	44
3.3	Stages of democratization	54
4.1	The ending of military rule in Latin America	71
6.1	Americans' trust in the government in Washington, 1964–2008	97
6.2	Political generations	99
6.3	How elite compromise can deliver political stability to divided societies	107
7.1	The transmission model of political communication	112
8.1	Patterns of participation in liberal democracies	132
8.2	A patronage network linking centre and periphery	145

9.1	A peak association: Britain's CBI	154	14.1	Coordination within and across tiers of government	255
9.2	Iron triangles: how subgovernments operated in the USA	157	14.2	Bloc Québécois share of the vote in Quebec: Canadian general elections, 1997–2011	261
9.3	Channels of interest group influence	158	14.3	Average population of municipalities (lowest tier) in selected European liberal democracies, 2007	268
10.1	Who selects candidates for legislative elections?	174	15.1	Population and assembly size, 2012	277
10.2	Introduction of public subsidies for parties' extra-parliamentary work, Western Europe, 1959–90	177	15.2	Selecting the second chamber, 2012	279
10.3	The decay of some dominant parties, 1976–2012	184	15.3	Typical stages in making a law	282
10.4	Organization of the Chinese Communist Party	185	15.4	Incumbent return rates to legislatures	290
11.1	Methods for selecting presidents	198	16.1	Presidential government	300
11.2	Proportion of voters deciding which party to support during the election campaign: Australia, Britain and the USA, 1948–2010	201	16.2	Parliamentary government	305
12.1	Parties converge at the centre	219	16.3	Governments in Western Europe, 1945–99	307
12.2	Turnout at parliamentary elections in three liberal democracies, 1970–2010	227	16.4	Government formation in Belgium	309
13.1	Establishing constitutional courts in Europe	238	16.5	Semi-presidential government	313
13.2	Methods of appointing judges to the highest court	244	17.1	Founding of federal departments in Canada and the USA	328
13.3	Administrative courts in France	247	17.2	The structure of a typical government department	329
			18.1	Stages of the policy process	347
			18.2	The diffusion of innovations	353
			19.1	Population and assembly size, 2012, showing the line of best fit and highlighting two outliers	370